NotesTerm Work

Your term work grade may be calculated from a combination of quizzes, meetings with your professor, participation, in-class work, and homework. Your professor will explain this component of your grade during the first week of classes. There is a direct correlation between attendance in class and a good academic grade. It is highly recommended that students read text materials before classes. Any work missed as a result of failure to attend class is the responsibility of the student.

Term Project

The term project will be discussed during the first weeks of class. An electronic copy and/or a hard copy of the project must be submitted (Check with your professor for specifics).

There will be penalties for work submitted late. These penalties will be up to the discretion of the professor. All materials submitted for grading must be professionally presented and WILL be marked for spelling and grammar as well as content.

Mid-term Exam

The mid-term exam will be utilize different question types including multiple choice questions, true/false/why questions, short and long-answer questions. These will be based on both the text and topics covered in class.

Final Exam

The format of the final will be similar to the mid-term with some comprehensive application case type
